Jamaica, March 31. About 14 Days ago the Scarborough Man of War brought in two French Prizes, one a homeward-bound Ship of 300 Tuns, laden with Sugar and other Commodities; the other the Queen Anne Packet-Boat, which the French were fitting out for a Privateer. Since that there hath been brought in by one of of our Privateers, a French Prize of 150 Tuns, laden with Wine, Brandy and other Goods.

Jamaica, May 19. Our Privateers have lately had very good Succeſs; one of them has taken two French Ships, one laden with Wine and Brandy, the other with Salt, which is not yet come into Port. And Captain Coleby, Commander of a Privateer Sloop of 100 and odd Men, meeting with 14 Sail of Brigantines and Sloops, laden with valuable Goods, going from the Galleons at Porto-Bell to Panama, under Convoy of the Duke of Anjou's Guard-Sloop, of betwixt 70 and 80 Men, bravely fought the Guard-Sloop, and two others that ſtood by her, for two hours, and took her and ſix more; five of them he brought in here; the other two, after he had taken the Goods out, he gave to the French and Spaniards to carry them a-ſhoar, they being too many for him to bring in: The Spaniards offer'd the Captain, for the Ranſom of the Sloops, 180000 Pieces of Eight.

Jamaica, June 17. One of our Privateers, commanded by Captain Pinkerman, hath brought in here a very rich French Ship of above 20 Guns, that came from Nants, bound to Eſpaniola, and the Spaniſh Coaſt. We have Advice by an Engliſh-man, who hath lately made his Eſcape from Havana, that Monſieur du Caſſe is there; that his Sailors are very ſickly, and that Monſieur du Caſſe himſelf had been nine Days indiſpos'd, when he came away.

Windſor, Auguſt 2. This Day arriv'd Mr. Thomas Williams, Captain of the Antegoa Packet-Boat, Expreſs from Brigadier-General Handaſyd, Governor of Jamaica, with the following Advices.

Jamaica, June 17. Thomas Newton, Maſter of the Martha Sloop of London, arriv'd in Port-Royal Harbour from the Coaſt of Porto Bello, on Wedneſday the 9th Inſtant with Advice, that on Thurſday the 3d of this Month, on his return to Jamaica, under Convoy of the Dolphin Man of War, they fell in Company with the Kingſton, Portland, and a Fireſhip, between the Brew and Friends Iſlands, and were informed by thoſe Men of War, that the Friday before Commodore Wager in her Majeſty's Ship the Expedition, accompanied by them, about Evening met with the Spaniſh Galleons, and other Veſſels, conſiſting in all of 14 Sail, between the Brew and Friends Iſlands: The Commodore engag'd the Spaniſh Admiral, who after an Hour's Diſpute blew up; then he came up with the Rear-Admiral, and after three Hours Engagement with him, took him; the Commodore loſt 14 Men, the Galleon 90. The Kingſton engag'd the Vice-Admiral, who got among ſome Shoals, but the Kingſton being in danger of running upon thoſe Shoals, ſtood out, by which means that Galleon made her Eſcape into Carthagena. The next Morning they ſpy'd another Galleon, which in chaſing of her run aſhore, where the Spaniards blew up her Stern, and left her.

Jamaica, June 18. Captain Tuder of Her Majeſty's Ship Dolphin, is juſt now arriv'd from the Spaniſh Coaſt, who gives an Account, That there are no more Men ſaved of the Admiral's Galleon that blew up, than 17 out of 7 or 800. He adds, That Commodore Wager is to Windward, refitting the Galleon he took, as well as his own Ship, and deſigns, when that is done, to come directly into Port. The other two Men of War are cruizing off Carthagena, and are endeavouring to get what they can from the Galleon that run aſhore. It is believ'd, Monſieur du Caſſe will not continue in theſe Seas, but immediately return to France. All poſſible meaſures will be taken to prevent thoſe Veſſels coming out of Carthagena, which were deſign'd to join Monſieur du Caſſe, and all our Privateers are order'd to cruize off that Port, and the Havana. The Priſoners report, that there was in the three Galleons that are taken and deſtroy'd, a vaſt quantity of Plate.

Vienna, July 28. N. S. Baron Twickel, Envoy from the Biſhop of Munſter to this Court, has lately receiv'd, in his Maſter's Name, the Inveſtiture of the Biſhoprick of Paderborn, and hopes, in a few Days, to take alſo that of Munſter. On Sunday laſt Count Potſtazki arriv'd here Poſt from Genoa, with Advice that the Queen of Spain ſail'd from thence on the 13th Inſtant, with a fair Wind, for Barcelona. On the 25th Inſtant Te Deum was ſung here in St. Stephen's Church, in the Preſence of the Emperor and Empreſs, and the Guns fired from the Walls of the Town, for our late Victory over the French in Flanders. The ſame Day the Prince of Lamberg was inſtall'd in his Office of Maſter of the Horſe to the Emperor. The following Day having been the Emperor's Birth-Day, it was celebrated here with a great Appearance of Nobility at Court in the Morning, and with an Opera at Night; perform'd in the Garden of the Old Favourite, where all the Actors appear'd on Horſe-back, and in Triumphal Chariots, after the mannner of the ancient Romans. Marſhal Heiſter, after having receiv'd ſome part of the Mony which he has been ſoliciting here for the Operations of the Campaign in Hungary, is return'd to Presburg, from whence we expect to hear very ſoon of the Motions of the Armies in thoſe Parts. The Germans had form'd a Deſign to take the Fort which the Malecontents have in their Poſſeſſion on the Banks of the Danube at Karavar, and accordingly Order'd ſome Troops to make an Aſſault by Land, while their armed Barks were to attack it from the Water; but the Hungarians having had Intelligence of the Deſign, march'd ſome Horſe and Foot down to the River-ſide to cover the Place, and obliged the Germans to retire. Prince Ragotzi was there in Perſon with his Regiment of Foot-Guards. A Party of 200 German Horſe having march'd out of Oedenburg to Forage, they fell in with a Body of 3000 Hungarians, who put moſt of them to the Sword, and made the reſt Priſoners.

From the Camp at Wervick, Auguſt 6. N. S. On the 3d Inſtant all the Troops that were with Count Tilly in
